MRS. ROBERT LEWERS entertained over seventy members of the younger set at a delightful supper dance on Tuesday evening in honor of her grand-nephew and niece, Mr. Henry Carter and Miss Grace Carter, who have recently returned to Honolulu. The spacious rooms of lovely "Halekulani" were beautifully decorated with masses of green Japanese paper intermingled with huge clusters of golden shower. Kala's quintette rendered the most tuneful of melodies which, together with the excellent floor, made dancing irresistible and the evening's entertainment was voted a complete success by all present. A delicious supper was served on tables artistically decorated with baskets of maidenhair ferns. The place cards were ornamented with a dainty Hawaiian motif and the name "Halekulani." Mrs. Lewers was assisted in receiving and entertaining her guests by her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Wall.

Among those present were Mrs. Charles Edmund Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dowsett, Mr. and Mrs. Ranney Scott, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. George Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Holloway, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Galt, Mrs. Doris Paris, the Misses Grace Carter, Elizabeth Carter, Phoebe Carter, Ruth Anderson, Beatrice Dreese, Pauline Schaefer, Rose Herbert, Nora Swanzey, Rosamund Swanzey, Hilda von Holt, Mary von Holt, May Bivin, Jessie Kennedy, Wilhelmina Tenney, Margaret Center, Dorothy Hedemann, Sibyl Robertson, Genevieve Young, Bertha Kooke, Father Kopke, Eloise Wichman, Bernice Halstead, Alice Cooke, Beatrice Castle, Bertha Young, Nora Sturteon, Harriet Hatch, Letitia Morgan, Ruth Richards, Thelma Murphy, Laura Low, Helen Achilles, Helen Achille, Miss Ruthertford, the Messrs. Henry Carter, Jack Galt, Carter Galt, Armer Dreese, George Albarn, Robert Purvis, Fred Schaefer, Alexander Anderson, Charles Herbert, Kenneth Ables, Alvin Lowrey, Herman von Holt, Ronald von Holt, Frederick Wichman, Sam Carter, Vernon Tenney, Allan Reuben, Hennoch Pfingel, Albert Horner, Foster Horner, Ernest Gay, George Phillips, Bob McCarrison, Bert Clark, Ed. Hedemann, James Morgan, Stanley Kennedy, Dickson Nott, Arthur Burrows, A. N. Campbell, Mrs. Arthur F. Wall and Mrs. Robert Lewers.

Mrs. Ayres' Dinner.

Mrs. Ella Rodman Ayres was hostess at a delightful Fourth of July dinner last Saturday evening at her lovely Walkiki home. The table was most attractive, the color scheme of red, white and blue being carried out in all the decorations. Red and white carnations tied with a large bow of fluffy blue tulle formed an attractive centerpiece. The favors were all done in red, white and blue and the place cards were decorated with quaint little colonial figures. It was a charming affair and Mrs. Ayres as hostess looked very stately in lavender satin trimmed with gold lace.

Covers were placed for: Mrs. Buckley, Mrs. Butler, Miss Florence Butler, Mrs. Alexander G. Hawes, Colonel William C. Rafferty, Major Arthur S. Conklin, Mr. W. O. Phillips, Mr. David Anderson, Mr. Hamilton P. Agee and Mrs. Ayres.

After dinner the party attended the final appearance of The Players at the Bijou in "Within the Law."

The Beach is Popular.

Probably the most popular place in the city at the present time is the Outrigger Canoe Club quarters. From early morning the beach is occupied, a number of people coming out for swims before breakfast. In the afternoon the shore and the water are almost too crowded for enjoyment and the swim is forced into a social event instead of an athletic affair. The cool lanai is the scene of little groups laughing and chatting over cups of tea, while the evenings are filled with the savory essence of chowder and coffee. It is such a healthy, happy crowd which bustles in and out that, splashing in the water, lounging in the sand, or sipping tea on the lanai, one cannot escape the infection of the carefree, vacation spirit which permeates the very atmosphere and fills one with a single desire—to enjoy life.

Miss Laura Booth, the popular young daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Booth, who has just returned to Honolulu after two years spent at Notre Dame.

Mrs. Scott's Tea.

Mrs. Ranney Scott was hostess at a most delightful party yesterday afternoon at her beautiful Manoa home, in honor of Mrs. Charles Edmund Davis, Mr. Scott's sister, who is a recent arrival. A very charming afternoon was enjoyed, during which most delicious refreshments were served. Among those present were Mrs. C. E. Davis, Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mrs. S. G. Wilder, Mrs. F. M. Swanzey, Mrs. James A. Wilder, Mrs. Hyde-Smith, Mrs. C. L. Bodrero, Mrs. George R. Carter, Mrs. J. R. Galt, Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Mrs. Henry Foster Dutton, Mrs. George C. Butler and others.

Mrs. Belser's Bridge-Luncheon.

Mrs. J. J. Belser was hostess at a delightful bridge luncheon on Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Jessie Smith of Oakland. Miss Selma Johnson of Oakland and Mrs. C. M. Clegg

The luncheon tables were beautifully decorated a different scheme being used for each one. On one forget-me-nots were artistically arranged; on another fragrant sweet peas, while lovely Cecil Bruner roses adorned a third. Covers were placed for 26. After luncheon bridge was enjoyed for the remainder of the afternoon.

Hawaiian Story.

In the July number of the McClure's Magazine there is the first installment of a story by Alice Hegan Rice, entitled "The Honorable Percival," the story of a Blighted Being. Those who read the story will find it most interesting, for the plot is laid in Hawaii and there is considerable local color in the description. This sort of attention never fails to elicit comment and approval from all patriotic Hawaiians.

Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane's Supper Dance.

Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane was hostess at a delightful supper-dance on Thursday evening at her lovely Peninsula home in honor of Mr. Arthur Burrows. A large number of the members of the popular younger set were present and a very jolly evening was enjoyed. A group of Hawaiian singing boys rendered excellent music for the occasion. Mrs. Macfarlane was assisted in receiving and entertaining her guests by her daughter, Miss Alice Macfarlane. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Foster Dutton, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, Mr. Vernon Tenney, Mr. R. C. Goetz, Miss Eloise Wichman, Mr. Frederick Wichman and a great many others of the younger set.

Mrs. Macfarlane's Supper-Dance.

Mrs. Walter Macfarlane was a delightful hostess last evening when she entertained 82 members of the youngest set at a most enjoyable supper-dance given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Burrows and Mr. Arthur Burrows, who are recent arrivals in Honolulu. The affair took place in the beautiful Shingle home up Manua Valley and was distinguished by all the jolly and informal pleasures which mark a house party. A delicious supper was served, after which dancing was enthusiastically enjoyed to a late hour. A number of the guests also enjoyed a refreshing swim in the excellent tank.

Among those invited to be present were Mr. and Mrs. Burrows, Mr. Arthur Burrows, the Misses Elizabeth Carter, Phoebe Carter, Helen Achilles, Miss Porter, Mr. Jack Galt, Mr. Carter Galt, Mr. Stanley Kennedy, Mr. Erling Hedemann, Mr. Ed. Hedemann, Mr. Earl Fenchamacher, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Beatrice Dreese, Mr. Armer Dreese, Miss Rose Herbert, Mr. Chas. ## St. Anthony's School Entertainment Great Success.

Declared by hundreds who saw it to have been the best affair of its kind ever held in Waikiki, the entertainment given last Friday and Saturday evenings by the pupils of St. Anthony's Girls' School, was also a most gratifying success financially. It is understood that the proceeds of the two evenings netted between $300 and $400. Everybody connected with the ambitious undertaking are tired but happy at the outcome of their efforts. The teachers and others who spent days of hard work in coaching the dozens of children in their parts, have no reason to feel that their efforts were not well repaid. Almost without exception the songs, recitations, and little dialogues and operettas, which made up the program were rendered practically without a hitch, and they were all of a high order, too. The hall was most tastefully decorated with bunting, flags, and lanterns, this being the work of Miss Bishop. The sisters extend cordial thanks to the many persons who worked so faithfully to make the affair a success.—Maui News, July 4.

Mrs. McGovern to Depart.

Tonight Mrs. Ernst Giesecke is entertaining a few friends at her Kaimuki home as a farewell to her sister, Mrs. McGowan, who is returning to the coast on the Wilhelmmina next Wednesday. Mrs. McGowan has spent several weeks in the city, during which time she has made many friends and has been extensively entertained.

Mrs. Raymond Brown was hostess at a very jolly beach party on Wednesday evening at the Outrigger Club. After a delightfully refreshing dip in the sea a delicious supper was served. About 30 guests were present.

Miss Harnden, of California, is spending several weeks in Honolulu as the guest of her sister, Mrs. James A. Wilder.
